

International Moving

Moving internationally can be a very exciting opportunity whether relocating for business or pleasure. Overseas moves have unique challenges and require detailed planning that should be considered prior to leaving for your new home. Make sure you place your household belongings and trust in someone experienced in international relocation. Lile has been moving people to Europe, Asia, Africa, South America and all over the world for more than 50 years.

Lile's team of professional International Moving Consultants will help you plan a smooth and cost effective move. Wherever your relocation is taking you, Lile will help you clear Customs, navigate international documentation and help you get started on your overseas adventure. We offer the following services for our international moving customers:

- Loading services either into shipping containers or loose loading for container transport
- Full paper pad wrapping in 3-ply paper to protect items such as table and dressers
- Full packing and crating services including a detailed descriptive inventory of your items
- Assistance with obtaining an Employer Identification Number (EIN) if you're moving from the U.S.
- Assistance with completing an Importer Security Filing for relocation to the United States
- Air and sea shipping
- International Customs clearance
- Destination country information
- Storage – if your move is temporary, we can store your household items in our secure warehouse to save you the cost of shipping
- High touch communication at origin, destination and throughout the move process to keep you informed of all moving details
- Automobile shipping and pet transport

Lile is a certified woman-owned business who cares about our customers and has successfully and safely moved families all over the world. We are ready to assist you with a stress free move.
