

Are you prepared for an Emergency?

Pre-planning for an emergency is the best insurance you can have for your organization or business. Having a contingency plan in place will not only save your company money during an emergency, but will keep production flowing, preserve corporate assets, and minimize future insurance premiums.

Some important questions to ask yourself are:

- Do we have a contingency plan in the event of a fire, flood or earthquake?
- Is our contingency plan ready to handle a major catastrophe?
- What means do we have to quickly vacate our premises for office furniture and assets?

Lile International is the key for maintaining business continuity during an emergency. Lile will create a contingency plan customized to your needs, and provide the following services:

- Pre-negotiated agreements and established rates
- Temporary operating facilities
- Quick response from a professional mover
- Equipment to move media materials
- Local short-term and long-term warehousing space
- Assets are inventoried and secure
- Web-based Warehouse Management System gives you 24/7 inventory access
- Immediate response minimizes risk of further damages
- Simplified emergency procedures
- Other disaster recovery services available

For further information on how to establish a contingency plan, contact Lile International at (800) 833-3510.

Lile International is a certified 100% Women-Owned Business and is the largest relocation, logistics and warehousing company in the Pacific Northwest. Lile is a top 10 agent for North American Van Lines with ten branch locations in Oregon and Washington.

The logo for Lile International, featuring the word "Lile" in a bold, italicized, sans-serif font. The letters are dark blue with a white outline, giving it a three-dimensional appearance.